2. AKAVAANGA NO TE ENUA TEPUKA 106C

Ei kiteanga no te katoatoa, teia i raro nei te tuatua no te akavaanga tei raveia i te marama i topa Mati no te enua Tepuka i Nikao:

STATEMENT FROM THE CICC ON THE DECISION OF CHIEF JUSTICE WESTON ON TEPUKA SECTION 106C, NIKAO

On Wednesday 28 March 2012 Chief Justice Tom Weston handed down his judgment rejecting the application by Elena Tavioni on behalf of some of the Makea family to overturn the gift by the Makea Ariki of the land Tepuka 106C Nikao to the London Missionary Society (LMS), now the Cook Islands Christian Church (CICC). The application which was lodged early last year challenged the legitimacy of the original gift of the land and the orders of the Land Titles Courts made over a hundred years ago awarding the Tepuka to the LMS. Arguments on both sides were presented by Mr Tony Manarangi and Tere Carr for the Makea family, and Mrs Tina Browne and laveta Short for the CICC. After studying the various submissions and hearing the final submissions of the parties, Chief Justice Weston handed down his decision in Court.

The Chief Justice in his summing up went through the historical background of how the land was originally offered to Rev. Krause of the LMS by Makea Daniela in 1864 and after his death the gift was confirmed in 1869 by Makea Apera who succeeded Makea

Daniela, and when the land was investigated by the Land Titles Court in 1904 the land was awarded to the LMS and noted that Makea Takau who was the Makea at the time was recorded as present in the Court and would have supported the gift to the LMS.

The Chief Justice rejected the arguments presented by the Makea family that the orders vesting the land in the LMS was wrong. In addition he noted that Tepuka and all other LMS lands were vested in the Church when the CICC Act 1968-69 was passed. Mrs Browne will be making written submissions for costs to be paid by the Makea family representatives.

A spokesman for the Church stated that it was unfortunate that some members of the Makea Family chose to challenge the gift which was clearly supported by 3 Makeas over a hundred years ago and no doubt supported by all the Makeas since 1904 to the last Makea Teremoana Ariki who died in 1994. All income and benefits received from this land is going into paying for the many programs of the Church including the running of the Takamoa Theological College for the training of new pastors, to developing many of its missionary and social programs such as youth, uniformed organizations, welfare, Sunday schools, women's programs and so on. The Church has been proactive in using this land efficiently for a village settlement and noted that the Church has always occupied this land since the 1860s, over 150 years now. We are also sure that is exactly what the Makeas would have wanted for the Church to use the land efficiently to support its church work.

Topic: SUICIDE (by Willie Ave, Aleena and Shalom Maunga)

Precious Life”

What is Suicide? It is the act of taking your own life; the result of an accumulation of loss. But what does it really mean? Suicide is described to be deep enduring sadness or a deep unhappiness to the point of hopelessness.

Not many people would like to discuss such a sensitive topic. Within the Cook Islands there has been eleven suicide incidents reported to the police department from 2008-2012, seven involved males and four females, age ranging between 14 yrs-53 yrs. Most suicide incidents are occurring mainly in Rarotonga. Most of these suicides occur during early hours of the morning, specifically between midnight (12 am) and 3 am. People who go through that stage of wanting to commit suicide physically abuse themselves by cutting their wrist or burning themselves.

Suicide is so unpredictable, that people don't see or notice the signs, signs that show the changes of one's mood and personality or notice how withdrawn they are from their families, friends and social life. Reasons why people commit suicide are because they are depressed, family issues, partner relationship issues, loneliness and low self-esteem. Suicide is an unacceptable choice in the eyes of the Lord, it's what the bible calls as self murder.

The sixth commandment in the Ten Commandments says "Thou shalt not murder." If you kill someone, you have committed murder, if you kill yourself, you have committed murder. Suicide is almost always performed by people who are living a life rebellion against God. Suicide can be avoided by renewing our relationship with God. God is the answer. Man needs to come back to God. He will give freshness in our lives. Despise him and our fate is sealed.

What we have learnt, that life is so special, do not waste your time killing yourself!

Topic: CONSTITUTION AND POLICIES (by Vanita Glassie Utia)

“Aaere marie e aku potiki, kia kite koe i nga ina potea”

- ❖ Would like to begin my news article with a strong quote for our young people.
- ❖ This reminds me about our parents giving us many advices every day, to make sure that we are guided and advised every day to protect us doing the wrong thing or to keep us in the right track.
- ❖ I think expressing my views on this topic, might help our young people out there not only in the church and the organization, but basically in our community.
- ❖ The Constitution and policies are like our parents who give advices to guide us in the right way.
- ❖ I learnt that Constitution is the system of laws which stated people's right and duties.
- ❖ Policies are a set of strategic plans of an organization, groups or any ordinary business to improve, strengthen and enhance the growth of any organization.
- ❖ Mr Charlie Tamangaro, the Chairman of the Rarotonga Christian Youth from Nikao CICC Ekalesia shared his views on this topic.
- ❖ If we belong to this church or organization, we need to understand and learn our Constitution and policies. Our leaders need to share and ensuring the Constitution and policies available to all the members, so they know their right being in each organization.

I give thanks to our Lord above, for showing us the way in this Youth Convention and for blessing our leaders to do their duties better and smarter. I take my hat off for our Director of Youth, Mr Williams for encouraging us the young people to move forward in our life.

My biggest appreciation to our Arorangi Christian Youth Council Executive members for giving us the opportunity to participate in this Youth Convention, it is my first time and I thoroughly enjoyed the friendship and togetherness among the young girls and boys from Rarotonga and the Outer Islands.

Topic: HIV AWARENESS (by Anna Akaroa)“Be faithful & honest to your partner for Life”

My honest opinion and what I have learnt on this topic.

- I have very little understanding on this topic, however throughout the session, on Monday afternoon. The CIFWA (Cook Islands Family Welfare Association) representatives did 4 groups of activities.
- Our Youth delegates were splits into 4 groups and did a round in each grouping with time limits accordingly to their time keeper.
- The CIFWA had a variety of different activities and sessions – which all the young people participate as they had give away like lollies, bags, t-shirts and so forth.
- If it wasn't for this, HIV Awareness program, we will be walking around without knowing the cause of this disease.
- We wouldn't know what HIV stands for and we wouldn't know the prevention of this disease.
- HIV can be spread through unprotected sex. So to our youth members “to have safe protected sex, simply use a condom! Come on! Be faithful to your partner.
- HIV can be prevented if we use condom like I said before, protect yourself so you may live longer on earth.
- All these are HIV Awareness, we definitely need to know and understand all these.
- This whole week of Youth convention we went through the biblical teachings of being safe with the Lord and how to be safe.
- Our theme says “empowering youth to walk in Christ in this 21st century ”
- Our appreciation to our organizers whom had planned such a great event for our young people, to help them throughout their lives and it is not too late to show them the way.

Kia orana e kia manuia.

Topic: EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS BILL - (by Charlotte Lockington Pera)“My Right”

- ✓ I was one of the 5 lucky young women from the Outer Island Girl Guides who were given the opportunity to travel to Rarotonga to attend this Youth Convention 2012.
- ✓ I couldn't stop sharing with my friends the opportunity offered by the Girl Guides Association Cook Islands covering our returned airfare as part of their contribution towards strengthen our relationship with the various youth groups and enhancing the 100th Years of Changing Lives program globally celebrated around the world.
- ✓ My right was well presented by Mrs Helen Maunga from the Ministry of Internal Affairs as the Director of the Labour and Employment Relations Office on Tuesday 10th April, 2012 at the last session of the day.
- ✓ We weren't bored, because she shared her story on the title movie 'HAPPY FEET' which illustrate her session to us the young people.
- ✓ She presented a lot of information's – we all learnt so many things in such a short time.
- ✓ A handful of these things would include individual employment contracts, our rights at work places and issues that are affecting young people in employment.
- ✓ However my opinion, the lesson that stood out the most was that leader or the first penguin is not always easy. Things sometimes goes smoothly, sometimes it doesn't.
- ✓ I think this topic is important to be talked about more often as many of us young people are failing in some areas.
- ✓ She had her session with few quizzes which kept the young people awake for the entire session and winning few packets of lollies. This shows a little confidence in our young people.
- ✓ I would like to say – Meitaki Atupaka to Mrs Helen Maunga for being friendly, helpful and patient with us the young people. Providing her valuable time to share her experience in this area, as we are moving forward into work force in few years time.

God bless you all the youth members.

Topic: AFTERNOON SPORTS (by Gerena Allyse [Tokoa] Van Dogen)

“Fun vs Knowledge”

I truly enjoyed the idea of giving us the young people a time to enjoy a little bit of physical activities during our one week Youth Convention.

- Monday afternoon, we had a great time participating in a volleyball fun game with our Papa's and Mama's in the Takamoa Theological, held in Takamoa ground organized by the students.
- I am surprise that they can play better than squad players. All the young people did not expect these Takamoa students can play professionally; I suppose that they were once like us and played from their respected islands with lots of energy.
- My view that we can have fun in our busy day program and have fun time with other youth members from all the Ekalesia.

- We took one afternoon for a quick swim down at the Avarua wharf to relieve all those stress sitting in the Sinai Hall. I love it.....
- It is a good idea to give us the young ones a chance to enjoy a little bit of fun, so we can really mingle with other young people from around Rarotonga. I made new friends and I got to know a little more about some of the leaders in some other organizations and other churches.

My hope that we could all meet again in the next Youth convention in 2014 in Atiu. My special regards to all my friends that I met in this Youth Convention 2012. I look forward to having more fun in the future with you all and walk with Christ in this 21st Century. Aere ra!

Topic: DEBATE ISSUES (by Agnes Daniel)“Me and You and Our Voices – Speak Out!”

Are youth groups still relevant or not relevant in the Church today?

- ❖ The debate session was our chance giving our voice on various questions raised during this busy week.
- ❖ I especially pick the about topic, as I am passionate about being a young women in our church in Arorangi.
- ❖ I cannot argue to anyone who was not there at the convention.
- ❖ Most of the youth delegates who represented all the 5 youth groups in our church namely Sunday school, Christian Youth, Boys Brigade, Girl Guides and Girls Brigade.
- ❖ The youth gave their own opinion how they felt being questioned. Good ideas, positive comments and even recommendation to submit to our General Assembly.
- ❖ The debate session really moved me because I had never really thought about life without youth groups in church – where do we go? Look around how many people have left our own church – why?
- ❖ The session got all the youth members thinking of HOW or WHY would the youth groups are relevant or not. We were all quiet and disappointed?
- ❖ I like to share a example of my own organization that I love and grew up since a little girl –Girls Brigade
- ❖ We had base our answer on our Girls Brigade aim – being a Christian organization, international and regional affiliation.
- ❖ We help followers of the Lord Jesus Christ through self control reverence and a sense of responsibility to find true enrichment of life.
- ❖ My motto says “Seek, serve and follow Christ”
- ❖ My personal comments, that I would like the Leaders of our churches to keep these youth groups and continue regardless migration issue, demographical and so forth. I would like to challenge anyone who reads my article if you would agree with me. Our God is always with us.

NEWS HIGHLIGHTS FROM YESTER-YEARS

Cover page of the monthly "Karere" in the 1940s-50s. The name of the boat is "John Williams VI".

"KO TE KARERE" (Karere) is a regular publication of the Cook Islands Christian Church. Its format has changed a few times over the years. Up to the 1970s, the Karere was published monthly and comprised of 3 parts: (1) scripture readings and uapou questions for each Sunday of the month, (2) a section set aside specifically for Sunday School, and (3) news, notices and announcements for the benefit of the CICC's branches on Rarotonga and in the outer islands. There were no branches in New Zealand and Australia back in those days. Printing was done at Takamoa by the LMS Press.

The Karere is still published today but on an annual basis and is confined to the Sunday scripture readings and uapou questions. News, notices and announcements are published in the bimonthly CICC newsletter. Both publications, in addition to others, are distributed to the CICC's 23 branches in the Cook Islands, New Zealand (22) and Australia (17) in both printed form as well as electronically. They are also available on the CICC's website (www.cicc.net.ck).

This section of the newsletter is devoted to bringing back memories of by-gone years. By reprinting in their original form some of the news articles from the church's past, one can virtually travel back in time and try to experience how things might have been then. For the next few issues of this newsletter, between 3/4 pages of published articles will be reproduced.

The CICC Head Office in Takamoa is greatly indebted to Ngata Urirau, Elder of the Avarua/Matavera Ekalesias for making available copies of the 1950s Karere from his possession for use in this CICC newsletter, thank you very much. Anybody else who has old CICC records that may be of interest to the public and would like them reproduced in this newsletter, please contact the General Secretary at Takamoa on cicccgs@oyster.net.ck or phone 26547.

HISTORY IN PICTURES

The following pictures depict the arrival of Missionary Paoo from Aitutaki in the Cook Islands, to Lifou in New Caledonia in the mid 1800s. Paoo is represented by the dressed up actor below. This re-enactment was staged during the first Pacific Conference of Churches (PCC) Assembly in Lifou in May 1966. Papa Tangaroa Tangaroa represented the CICC in this assembly.

Appreciation goes to Papa John Doom for providing copies of these photos from his collection, an avid photographer himself. John is one of the pioneers of PCC and was there when PCC was conceived in Malua, Samoa, in 1961. He has been to all PCC assemblies since then, and has experienced the many changes which took place within the PCC family over the past 50 years. John is a former General Secretary of the Maohi Protestant Church in French Polynesia, is currently one of 8 WCC regional presidents, and is an active member of the PCC Executive Committee 2007-2012.

DOCTRINE OF THE TRIUNE GOD: A THEOLOGICAL STUDY TUATUA NO TE TORU TAI

Part 2 (continued from last issue of newsletter)

Historical Background

Though the Bible taught truth of the Trinity of God implicitly in both Old and New Testaments, the development and delineation of this doctrine was brought about by the rise of heretical groups or teachers who either denied the deity of Christ or that of the Holy Spirit. This caused the early church to formally crystallize the doctrine of the Trinity. Actually, Tertullian in 215 A.D. was the first one to state this doctrine using the term, Trinity.¹ Concerning the struggle the early church went through, Walter Martin writes: As the New Testament was completed toward the close of the first century, the infant church was struggling for its life against old foes—persecution and doctrinal error. On the one hand were the Roman empire, orthodox Judaism, and hostile pagan religions, and on the other hand were heresies and divisive doctrines. Early Christianity was indeed a perilous experiment.

Probably no doctrine was the subject of more controversy in the early church than that of the Trinity. Certainly the teaching of “one God in three Person” was accepted in the early church, but only as this teaching was challenged did a systematic doctrine of the Trinity emerge. The Gnostic heresy, for instance, (which permeated Christendom in the lifetime of the apostles) drew strong condemnation in Paul’s Epistles to the Colossians and John’s First Epistle. Denying the deity of Christ, the Gnostics taught that he was inferior in nature to the Father, a type of super-angel of impersonal emanation from God. Following the Gnostics came such speculative theologians as Origen, Lucian of Antioch, Paul of Samosota, Sabellius, and Arius of Alexandria. All of these propagated unbiblical views of the Trinity and of the divinity of our Lord. But perhaps the most crucial test of Christian doctrine in the early church was the “Arian heresy.” It was this heresy which stimulated the crystallization of thought regarding both the Trinity and the deity of Christ.

Today there are still remnants of the Gnostic heresy (Christian Science), the Arian heresy (Jehovah’s Witnesses), and the Socinian heresy (Unitarianism) circulating in Christendom. All of these errors have one thing in common—they give Christ every title except the one which entitles Him to all the rest—the title of God and Savior. But the Christian doctrine of the Trinity did not “begin” at the Council of Nicea, nor was it derived from “pagan influences.” While Egyptian, Chaldean, Hindu, and other pagan religions do incorporate so-called “trinities,” these have no resemblance to the Christian doctrine, which is unique and free from any heathen cultural vagaries ...²

The point, then, is simply this: While the term Trinity is never specifically used nor the doctrine explicitly explained in Scripture, it is nevertheless implicitly stated. The church councils, in their fight against heresy, were forced to think through what the Bible says about how God exists. The result was the doctrine of the Trinity, but let it be emphasized, the development of this doctrine was based on a careful study of Scripture. Cairns discusses this time of theological controversy in the early church and the extreme care given to this issue: It was an era when the main dogmas of the Christian Church were developed. The unfavorable connotation conveyed by the word “dogma” in a day of doctrinal laxity, such as the present, should not obscure the value to the Church of dogma. The word “dogma” came through the Latin from the Greek word dogma, which was derived from the verb dodeo. This word meant to think. The dogmas or doctrines formulated in this period were the result of intense thought and searching of the soul in order to interpret correctly the meaning of the Scriptures on the disputed points and to avoid the erroneous opinions (doxai) of the philosophers.³

Finally, it should be said that, ... the doctrine of the Trinity is the distinctive mark of the Christian religion, setting it apart from all the other religions of the world. Working without the benefit of the revelations made in Scripture, men have, it is true, arrived at some limited truths concerning the nature and Person of God. The pagan religions, as well as all philosophical speculations, are based on natural religion and can, therefore, rise to no higher conception than that of the unity of God. In some systems we find monotheism with its belief in only one God. In others we find polytheism with its belief in many separate gods. But none of the pagan religions, nor any of the systems of speculative philosophy have ever arrived at a trinitarian conception of God.

The fact of the matter is that apart from supernatural revelation there is nothing in human consciousness or experience which can give man the slightest clue to the distinctive God of the Christian faith, the triune, incarnate, redeeming, sanctifying God. Some of the pagan religions have set forth triads of divinities, such as, for instance, the Egyptian triad of Osiris, Isis and Horus, which is somewhat analogous to the human family with father, mother and child; or the Hindu triad of Brahma, Vishnu and Schiva, which in the cycle of pantheistic evolution personifies the creative, preservative and destructive power of nature; or the triad set forth by Plato, of goodness, intellect and will—which are not examples of true and proper tri-personality, not real persons who can be addressed and worshipped, but only personifications of the faculties or attributes of God. None of these systems have anything in common with the Christian doctrine of the Trinity except the notion of “threeness.”⁴ Before we investigate the evidence for the Trinity, let’s define it and then study the evidence.

Definition of the Trinity (Triunity) of God:

Trinity: Webster’s dictionary gives the following definition of trinity: “The union of three divine persons (or hypostases), the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, in one divinity, so that all the three are one God as to substance, but three Persons (or hypostases as to individuality).” Synonyms sometimes used are triunity, trine, triality. The term “trinity” is formed from “tri,” three, and “nity,” unity. Triunity is a better term than “trinity” because it better expresses the idea of three in one. God is three in one. Hypostases is the plural of hypostasis which means “the substance, the underlying reality, or essence.”

Ryrie writers:

A definition of the Trinity is not easy to construct. Some are done by stating several propositions. Others err on the side either of oneness or threeness. One of the best is Warfield’s: “There is one only and true God, but in the unity of the Godhead there are three coeternal and coequal Persons, the same in substance but distinct in subsistence.”⁵ Person: In speaking of the Triunity, the term “person” is not used in same way it is in ordinary usage in which it means an identity completely distinct from other persons. Actually the word persons tends to detract from the unity of the Trinity. According to the teaching of Scripture, the three Persons are inseparable, interdependent, and eternally united in one Divine Being.

It is evident that the word “person” is not ideal for the purpose. Orthodox writers have struggled over this term. Some have opted for the term subsistence (the mode or quality of existence), hence, “God has three substances.” Most have continued to use persons because we have not been able to find a better term. “The word substance speaks of God’s essential nature or being and subsistence describes His mode or quality of existence.”⁶ Essence: In its theological usage, essence refers to “the intrinsic or indispensable, permanent, and inseparable qualities that characterize or identify the being of God.” The words triunity and trinity are used to refer to the fact that the Bible speaks of one God, but attributes the characteristics of God to three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

The doctrine of the trinity states that there is one God who is one in essence or substance, but three in personality. This does not mean three independent Gods existing as one, but three Persons who are co-equal, co-eternal, inseparable, interdependent, and eternally united in one absolute Divine Essence and Being. Typically, the words triunity and trinity are used to help us express a doctrine that is scriptural, (sola scriptura) though replete with difficulties for the human mind. Again, it needs to be emphasized that this is a doctrine that is not explicitly stated either in the Old or New Testaments, but it is implicit in both.

Note the following points:

Evangelical Christianity has believed in the doctrine of the Trinity, Triunity, or the Triune Godhead because of the teaching of the Bible as a whole (Old and New Testaments) and not because of one or two particular passages. As will be shown below, the whole of Scripture gives testimony to this doctrine.

There are many specific passages which teach us there are three distinct Persons who possess deity, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, but the Bible also teaches us with equal emphasis that there is but one true God or one Divine Essence or Substance and Being.

Taking the whole of Scripture, one can see that there is stress on: The unity of God, one Divine Being and Essence, and On the diversity of God in this unity, three Persons identified as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. It speaks of these Persons in such a way that it ascribes absolute undiminished deity and personality to each while stressing that there is but one God in divine substance. It is the doctrine of the trinity that harmonizes and explains these two thrusts of Scripture—oneness in three personalities.

When we see that the Bible teaches these three things:

There is but one God,
That the Father, Son, and Spirit are each God, and
That each is set forth as distinct Persons, we have enunciated the doctrine of the Triunity of God.

THE FOUNDATION OF THE FAMILY

God created the family. God created man and woman, to start the family. The family is the children born of the man and woman. The family will never cease to give birth, and there will always be a birth in the family, throughout the generations, until the end of time. God created the family, to do His will, on this earth. Which is, to care for all His creations on this earth, and all his commandments for mankind.

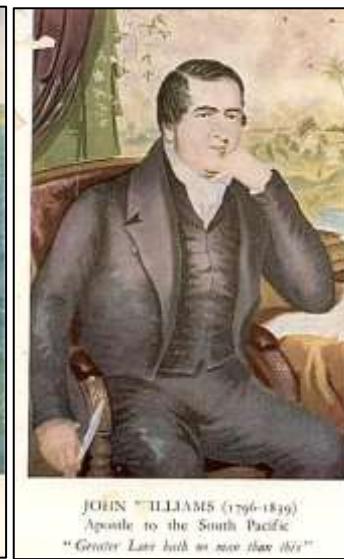

God created the family, through the man and woman. God created the family to multiply through birth. No family can be made from man and man. And no family can be made from woman and woman. There is no other way of creating a family but the family can be created through God's plan, man and woman.

God created man, to be able to help himself, to benefit everyone. The strong will help the weak in the family, the poor, the sick and needy and any other weakness in life. The purpose is, to bring happiness and prosperity in the growth of the family. God gave the family a voice, as a way of communicating to each other, in the family. God also gave man many various traditions, to help with the growth of the family, and to have a good life in the family. God also gave all the riches to the family, to benefit them. God also gave wisdom and intelligence in the family. God gave many and various talents in the family to further help the family. The family, is God's way of establishing his will on the earth.

God is the God of the family, God is the life of the family, God is the Eternal Father of the family, now and for ever. That is why, we should cherish our family. Care for our family, for your own good and your family. If the family is doing well, then the whole world will be also well.
